

For immediate release

Dominic Casserley joins Control Risks as Chair

30 May 2024 – London: The specialist global risk consultancy, Control Risks, today announces the appointment of Dominic Casserley to the post of Chair. Casserley began in post on 1 May 2024. He replaces Irene Dorner, who is stepping down after seven years but will remain on the Board as a Non-Executive Director.

Casserley is a senior adviser at Warburg Pincus LLC. Prior to that he had a thirty year career at McKinsey & Company (1983-2013) where he was based first in New York, then Hong Kong and finally London; Casserley's work at McKinsey focused on financial services clients. He served on the Shareholders Council of McKinsey from 1998 to 2013, and for five years oversaw the global finances of the company. Before joining Warburg Pincus, from 2013 Casserly was CEO of Willis Group, the global corporate insurance broker, leading the 2016 merger with Towers Watson to create WTW.

Commenting on his appointment, Casserley said: "I am delighted to be taking on the role of Chair at Control Risks, a truly global firm with a great brand that does mission critical work for clients at the interface of the greatest opportunities and challenges that businesses face today. It is an honour to succeed Irene Dorner, and I look forward to her continued wisdom as a Non-Executive Director."

"As we approach our 50th anniversary, the Board and Executive Committee of Control Risks are excited to welcome Dominic Casserley to the post of Chair," said Control Risks CEO, Nick Allan.

"Dominic brings a wealth of experience and strategic acumen to the role at a time of change and opportunity for Control Risks and its clients. The Board and Executive Committee are looking forward to a fruitful collaboration in the years to come," added Allan.

- ENDS -

Notes for editors

About Control Risks

Control Risks is a global specialist risk consultancy that helps to create secure, compliant and resilient organisations. With 39 offices across the world, we combine unrivalled expertise, experience and reach with the power of data and technology to provide the insight and intelligence needed to stay on track, realise opportunities and grow.

Our Purpose: In a changing world, we make the difference

At Control Risks, we understand risk, cut through uncertainty, and empower our clients to make better decisions. We keep opportunity moving forward and support organisations to benefit the communities and environments they work in. Through insight and experience, we help to mitigate threats, whatever form they take. In times of hope and times of crisis, we stand alongside our clients. When what matters most is on the line, we make the difference.

For more information contact:

Caspar Leighton
+44 7712 391 228
caspar.leighton@controlrisks.com