

Workplace Violence

eLearning course

Control Risks

Learn how to prevent and respond to workplace violence via our world class eLearning course for managers.

This eLearning course is designed for front-line managers and covers behavioral indicators of workplace violence and strategies for recognizing, preventing, and responding to incidents.

Nearly all perpetrators of workplace violence demonstrate concerning behaviors leading up to a violent event. This training program, developed in part by former members of the FBI's Behavioral Analysis Unit, will help familiarize you with the warning signs and red flags of potential violent acts. Front-line managers have a critical role recognizing, reporting, and mitigating these concerning behaviors as part of your organization's safety and prevention efforts.

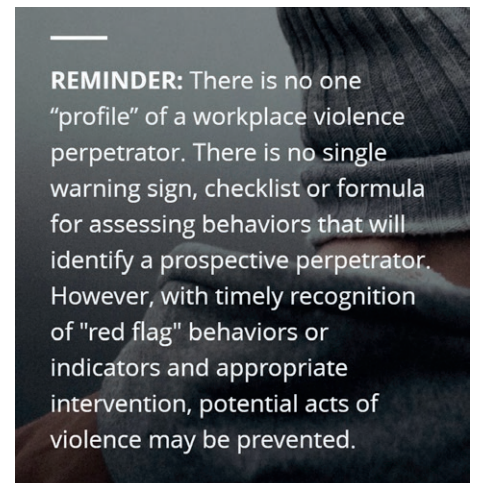

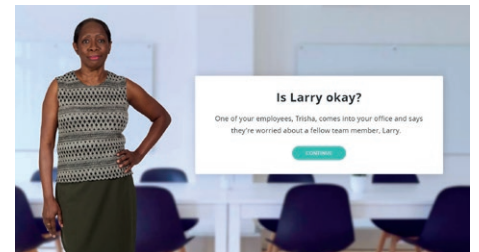

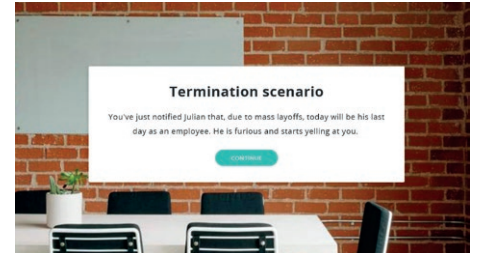

You will learn about:

- ▶ Types of workplace violence
- ▶ Behavioral indicators and warning signs of violence
- ▶ How to prevent and respond to a workplace attack
- ▶ De-escalation and problematic terminations
- ▶ Strategies for responding to an active assailant

Learn at your own pace

The course is structured into seven bite-sized lessons, with the total course taking approximately 30 minutes. We've designed a lesson that's interactive and engaging, combining real scenarios and reflecting the experiences of our behavioral experts.
