

TOP THREE DEVELOPMENTS IN 2016

Spike in maritime kidnapping in the Gulf of Guinea

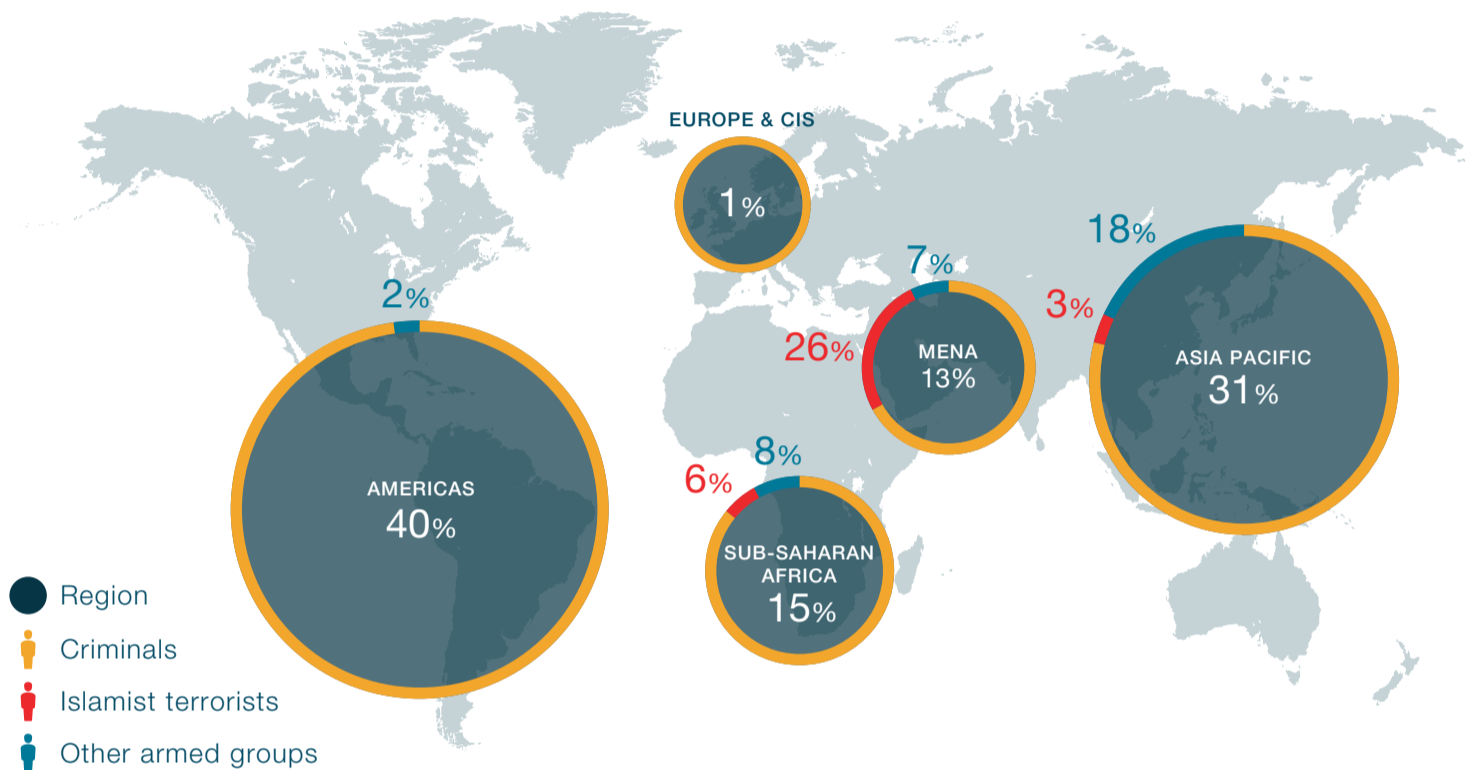

The Abu Sayyaf Group increasingly targeted foreigners in the Sulu Sea

The Americas overtook Asia Pacific as the world's primary kidnap region

KIDNAPS BY REGION AND PERPETRATORS

KIDNAP DURATION

81% of kidnaps lasted less than one week

50% of cases lasting less than one week were in the Americas

4% of kidnaps lasted longer than four weeks

~1,900 days was the longest recorded case to end in 2016

FOREIGN NATIONALS

5%

OF ALL VICTIMS WERE FOREIGN NATIONALS

86%

of all foreign national victims were in Asia Pacific, Sub-Saharan Africa and MENA

66%

of foreign victims were expatriates

34%

of foreign victims were travellers